PHOTOGRAPHY

Over 20 years ago, RothMedia was founded in the ever-changing, fast-paced fields of corporate advertising and event documentation. While servicing a wide array of international clients in various photographic conditions, we have gained valuable experience in approaching and delivering results in any shooting environment.

Over the years, our passion for creativity and attention to detail have been developed into our signature approach. This approach is based on the principle of providing our clients with the best content in any photographic style requested.

Corporate Slide Show

CONFERENCE COVERAGE

Our full coverage services ensure that every moment of your conference is captured with precision and professionalism. With live photo uploads, attendees can instantly engage with the event online, sharing their experiences in real time. After the conference, we provide a comprehensive event recap slideshow and video, allowing you to relive and share the highlights with your audience.

Our skilled photographers are also available to capture professional headshots, perfect for updating profiles and promoting future events. Finally, we offer reception coverage to document the networking and socializing moments that make your conference truly memorable. With our comprehensive coverage, you can trust that every aspect of your event will be captured flawlessly.

TEAM BUILDING

Capturing the essence of your team-building day and documenting its positive impact on your team.

From capturing laughter to celebrating shared achievements, we transform your team-building experience into a timeless narrative that inspires and strengthens cohesion. Trust us to capture memories that fuel your team's success story for years to come.
